Dear Brian

Re: Website Design

Where does time go, I thought I would drop you a letter and thank you for the excellent website you designed for us.

We was very pleased with the design and ideas you showed us when you designed our website and although it is 3 years old now, we feel it still looks modern and fresh.

I would have no problems recommending your services to others and we will certainly use your company when we need any new internet ideas and services.

We wish you and the team all the best for the future.

Yours sincerely

Danny Gough
